

(a) whether they are aware of the fact that cattle epidemics causing heavy mortality occur frequently in the villages of Muringur-Thekkummuri and Kizhakkummuri (Mukundapuram Taluk);

(b) which is the nearest Veterinary Dispensary or Hospital to which the people of the above villages could resort during such epidemics;

(c) have the people of those villages prayed to the Government for the establishment of a Veterinary Hospital at any suitable centre in any one of the two villages?

(d) if so, what action have the Government taken so far, in order to give relief to the petitioners?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—(a) No. A few cases were reported and the Veterinary Inspector, Irinjalakkuda took timely action to check the spread of the epidemic. There might have been a few cases of mortality which were unavoidable.

(b) Veterinary Hospital, Irinjalakkuda.

(c) Yes.

(d) As it is not possible for the Government to open Veterinary Hospitals in every village it is proposed to appoint touring Veterinary Inspectors.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—With regard to sub-division (d), the question was not with reference to establishing Veterinary Hospitals in every village. It has particular reference to the village of Kizhakkummuri. Do not the Government consider that Kizhakkummuri village is the largest village in Cochin?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—It might be. But there are certain other villages as well.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—Have they not set apart more than 100 acres of land grazing lands in this particular village.

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I want notice.
